LA BELGIQUE CRIMINELLE

BELGIUM

ST

CRIMINAL

Do you know what characterises a criminal? They are men and women of their time. Reliving the great criminal cases that have marked Belgium means re-immersing ourselves in Belgian history and its evolution. Because there's so much more to a crime than just a blood-soaked news item. It tells us of the despair of those living in its aftermath, like the way avid readers devour every last detail of a police investigation. Thanks to a look at crown court documents, we also see the history of the Belgian justice system and the changes it has undergone, as portrayed by the crime. Far more than just justice. Far more than just a crime. Far more than just a criminal.

When there have never been so many ways to find love, how are we loving each other in 2021? Beyond the traditional model of the couple, what are the other kinds of equilibrium that Generation Y is managing to achieve? Do we still believe in love at first sight? Can we love each other freely, without sexuality, with HIV, from a distance? Can we decide not to love? Over 8 episodes, Malou Vandercammen goes to meet people for whom love and sexuality are expressed in an unconventional way and yet who are well anchored in our time. She poses questions that we would all like to ask, without taboos or judgment. Behind the preconceptions, evolving over time, Malou will try to understand with great kindness what it means to LOVE.
